

April 2005
 Teacher / Child-Care Provider
 Calendar

Alameda County Child Abuse Prevention Council
 510-780-8989
 web site: www.accapc.com

Sun	Mon	Tue	Wed	Thu	Fri	Sat
					1 Wear a blue ribbon all month to show your commitment to prevent child abuse and neglect	2 Educate yourself —learn the signs of child abuse and neglect
3 Take time for yourself	4 Take time for yourself	5 Give each child a certificate for accomplishments, characters traits, or a kindness they have shown	6 Send Positive Parenting Tips of guides home with children	7 Review how to use 911 with student in case of an emergency.	8 Place child abuse hotline flyer in the teacher's lounge.	9 Send Positive Parenting Tips or guides home with children
10 Take time for yourself.	11 Take time for yourself.	12 Discuss and use bully prevention activities	13 Educate yourself visit www.accapc.com	14 Prepare a lesson or activity on personal safety for prevention on stranger abduction	15 Have children color pages of coloring book found at www.itsuptoyou.org	16 Ask administrators to schedule trainings for an upcoming teacher in-service on how to recognize child abuse
17 Take time for yourself	18 Take time for yourself.	19 Send Positive Parenting tips or guides home with children.	20 Review your school district's policy on bullying. If they do not have one, ask administrators to put one in place.	21 Have children complete water safety activities.	22 Teach children to seek help from a responsible adult if they are in trouble or someone hurts them.	23 Contact your local PTA and suggest that they plan child abuse prevention activities for next April
24 Take time for yourself.	25 Take time for yourself.	26 Make a commitment to be a child advocate every day— reach out to them. Show them that you care!	27 Send Positive Parenting tips or guides home with children	28 Take time for yourself	29 Give each child a certificate for accomplishments, characters traits, or a kindness they have shown	30 Take care and protect the children when they are in your care