

Essential Workers searching for child care can connect with Child Care Resource and Referral (R&R) agencies to find care

The Alameda County Resource and Referral agencies are serving essential workers (see list on next page), connecting them with child care during the coronavirus (COVID19) situation. Limited funding may be available to support the costs of care for eligible essential workers.

If you are an essential worker looking for child care, please call your local R&R or click on the Child Care Request Form link below to submit your child care needs. Please be advised that if you call and reach a voicemail, do leave a message and someone will return your call. R&R staff are actively checking voicemail messages.

Please note: By State Order child care facilities can remain open only for children of parents working in essential sectors. Refer to the Alameda County Public Health Department's COVID-19 website for additional information on this order.

Once you complete the form, staff from one of the R&Rs, BANANAS, 4Cs, or Hively will contact you.
