SUBSIDIZED EMPLOYMENT PROGRAM

Help for your business during these tough economic times

Moving families toward self-sufficiency

One of the goals of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) of 2009 is to create jobs. California has received new federal dollars to provide employment assistance to low-income families.

How your business can benefit from stimulus dollars:

If you hire one of our prescreened applicants we will reimburse you for 80% of wages and certain other employer costs for the first 6 months of employment.

How you can take advantage of this program to grow your business:

Simply contact one of our Job Developers. They will assist you with a simple agreement and arrange interviews with prescreened applicants. You are under no obligation to hire.

The Alameda County Social Services Agency will use ARRA funds to assist CalWORKs public assistance recipients obtain jobs that will help them become economically independent.
